About us

Our main field is to teach immigrants in German and we are supervised by the German Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (www.bamf.de). Furthermore, we train foreign students to give them the best opportunity to a good start with their studies at a German University. The Institut für Interkulturelle Kommunikation is an acknowledged TestDaf- and OnDaf-Centre. The facilities of our language school are perfectly located in the old town of Erfurt, near the train station and with access to the tram system.

WHERE WE ARE

Thuringia is one of the 16 German counties, located right in the middle of the country. Erfurt is the capital of Thuringia with 200 000 inhabitants. Founded in 742, Erfurt offers a great balance of history, culture and events for every generation. The medieval city centre shows historical buildings, and has nice little cafés and restaurants with outside areas to sit and relax. Only a 30 minutes drive far from Erfurt is Weimar, the home of the most famous German poets Goethe and Schiller. For a more sinister tone you could visit the concentration camp Weimar-Buchenwald. About 40km west of Erfurt is Eisenach with the Castle Wartburg: The place, where Martin Luther translated the bible from Latin into German in 1521. For those interested in space, the Planetarium in Jena (40 mins from Erfurt) is a must see!
